

ASEAN conference on sustainable development held

Officials and diplomats from the 10 ASEAN member countries gathered at a conference in Jakarta, Indonesia to debate the bloc's sustainable development goals (SDGs) on September 2.

The conference was co-organised by the ASEAN Secretariat, the French Embassy in Indonesia and the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) in Singapore, with financial support from the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA), Germany's Hanns Seidel Foundation and the Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES).

Read the full story at:

<http://ven.vn/tabid/77/newsid/38515/language/en-US/Default.aspx>